

What?

Cancellation warnings shown on a website pop-up if a restaurant owner decides to cancel their subscription to their waitlist and table management app (which would cost the company $99 a pop)

You Are About to Cancel Your Waitlist & Table Management App ...and Go Back to Uncertainty and Frustration!

Lose Walk Ins... Annoy Other Guests

Because your hosts don't have accurate wait times... they'll overquote walk-ins (and you lose them)... and frustrate those patiently waiting because they thought it would be quicker... next time they'll go somewhere else... and next time could be a 25 guest birthday party...

Which Means Frustrated Hosts

Who are bombarded on a busy night... With annoyed customers repeatedly asking "how long until my table is ready..." and your hosts will never have the answers to give them... making their lives a nightmare.

The Only Way to Ensure

Your restaurant doesn't descend into chaos... when you don't know who is seated where... how long until you have a table... are perpetually dealing with annoyed customers and staff... is to keep using your all-in-one Waitlist and Table Management App
